

OFA BILL ANALYSIS

SB 508

AN ACT CONCERNING THE EXPENDITURES OF THE DEPARTMENT OF INCOME MAINTENANCE

SUMMARY: The bill would require the Commissioner of Income Maintenance to review the programs administered by the Department in order to determine: (1) the cost and effectiveness of each such program in relation to all such programs; (2) the relative importance of the services provided under each such program to the recipients of such services; (3) the likelihood that recipients could qualify for similar services under federal, local or private programs; (4) the effects of the phase-out or elimination of such programs. The Commissioner shall submit findings and recommendations to the Joint Standing Committee on Appropriations no later than January 13, 1993.

EFFECTIVE DATE: October 1, 1992
